Convicted in fatal shooting

After seven hours of deliberation Friday, a jury in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville convicted John F. Nunes, 48, of 2134 Delmar Ave., of involuntary manslaughter.

Nunes was convicted of fatally shooting Edward Robertson, 19, of Granite City, in the back with a .22 caliber pistol the night of May 1, as Robertson allegedly attempted to steal gasoline from Nunes' pickup truck at the rear of his home.

Among the witnesses at the trial was a 16-year-old boy who testified he was with Mr. Robertson when the shooting occurred and indicated Mr. Robertson may have been attempting to steal gasoline at the time.

Granite City Police Detective Don Knight, arresting officers, testified Nunes told him he saw youths tampering with his truck and said Nunes stated when arrested, "I cut down on them."

Other witnesses recalled Nunes saying he did not mean to shoot anyone, only to frighten them away.

One basic defense contention was that there has been a great deal of crime in Nunes' neighborhood, including a murder, and many residents have felt it necessary to arm themselves for protection.

Nunes was among those called as a defense witness by his attorney, William Brandt of Granite City.

The case went to the jury at 2 p.m. Friday after four days of testimony. The jury returned its verdict at 9 p.m. Friday.

Circuit Judge Harold Clark, who conducted the trial, has not set a date for sentencing, pending a pre-sentence investigation.

Labor and management aiding drive

Quad-Cityans' tradition of both labor and management backing the annual United Way campaign is being repeated this fall.

In the adjacent Press-Record staff photograph, left to right, are David Gresham of Electrical Workers Local 909, Pete Baumann of Machinists Local 660, Alex Malzyński of United Steelworkers Local 1063, Stephen Salich of the Painters' Union, and Neil Konrad, assistant works controller, all of the American Steel Foundries plant in Granite City.

The joint ASF employee-employer contribution of $5,000 is an increase of about 20 per cent and represents more than a tenth of the overall Tri-Cities Area United Way goal of $508,250. The campaign's next report meeting is Wednesday.

Steel optimism

"I am more optimistic than I have been in a long time," Lloyd McBride, United Steelworkers of America president, said Friday after a labor-management conference with President Jimmy Carter and Cabinet members on Thursday.

Formerly at the Granite City and St. Louis offices of the Steelworkers, McBride predicted that the federal government will move quickly to attempt to reverse trends that have been harming the steel industry, including below-cost "dumping" of steel by Japan.

McBride and industry officials, after the White House discussion, repeated their earlier assertions that American steel firms can compete against foreign products if artificial tactics are prevented. "Optimistic" also was the word chosen by Edgar Speer, chairman of United States Steel, after the four-hour meeting.

Speer commented, "I think they're going to take a look at the problem as far as the steel industry is concerned. It seemed to me we can expect some sort of action in the near future."

President Carter acknowledged that the government has not enforced a 1974 law despite evidence that some foreign producers are dumping steel into the U.S. to keep their own workers employed.

He promised "actions and decisions," including tax relief, and even-handed approach to polluters and a crackdown on below-cost steel pricing by foreign firms.

Mr. Carter ruled out any quotas or negotiated restraints on steel imports, asserting he won't "erect trade barriers around our country" or act to overhear inflation.

Burglary loot over $5,000

Two neighbors, Harold Bone, 403 Brune Ave., and Brian Wilson, 4064 Brune Ave., Ponton Beach, returned to their homes at 2 a.m. Saturday to find both houses had been burglarized of items worth more than $5,000.

The burglary occurred between 6 p.m. Friday and 2 a.m. Saturday, according to police. Entry to the Bone house was made by breaking a window and cutting screens; while a sliding glass door in the Wilson home was forced.

Among items taken from Bone were: four speakers valued at $950, tape player $523, amplifiers $330, two speakers $300, eight track player $100, tape selector $109, 19-inch color television $500, stereo stand $70 and $945 worth of assorted tapes and record albums, plus a 16-gauge shot gun and a .357 loaded magnum pistol.

Wilson is missing a stereo player valued at $445, a recorder $285, turntable $115, two speakers $490 and $45 in cash.

Seriously hurt on Interstate Rt. 270 here

Robert Stone, 42, of 3137 Maryville Road, was seriously injured when his auto went out of control in the westbound lanes of Interstate 270 at 7:55 p.m. Thursday, struck the falling of the bridge over the Chain of Rocks Canal, and stopped in the westbound lanes, where it was struck by the auto of Nick Kennison, 58, Zionville, Ill.

Stone's right lower leg and ankle were caught by jagged metal and sustained a severe cut to the bone.

He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was also treated for cuts to the back of his head and pain to his neck.

X-rays were taken and he was admitted.

Lock progress

The eyes of this region are on the U.S. Senate, where the fate of a proposed new Alton area Lock and Dam 26 may be decided. The House approved it Thursday, 331-70.

Immensity of the project of building new facilities two miles downstream from the current aging Mississippi River dam and locks is being compared to the 1940s-50s era construction of the eight-mile-long Chain of Rocks Canal and Granite City Locks 27.

More than 1,400 skilled construction workers in Illinois and Missouri are available to help construct a dam and a 1,200-foot river lock, labor leaders and contractors report.

Legislation enacted by congressmen not only provides $432 million for the work but also imposes the first user fees on this nation's inland waterway system.

The House measure calls for a tax on barge diesel fuel of about $71 million yearly by 1984.

Earlier Senate action authorizes the lock project but sets a tax estimated at $500 million to $600 million annually, a level that many contend is excessive and oppressive.

Conferees will seek to arrive at a compromise.

William H. Dempsey, president of the Association of American Railroads and a key opponent of a new dam and lock, assailed the House-set tax as much too low in view of the cost of constructing, operating and maintaining inland navigation facilities.

The proposed new law would ban deepening the upper Mississippi channel to 12 feet from the present nine feet until a regional study commission completes a report on future development and use of the river north of Cairo, Ill.

ADDITIONAL FEDERAL SUBPOENAS REPORTED

A federal probe into governmental activities in Madison County is continuing, with further grand jury subpoenas issued in Springfield, sources indicated today.

It is believed at least three deputies with the Madison County Sheriff's Department have been subpoenaed to appear before the federal grand jury Friday, Oct. 28, after FBI agents questioned nearly a dozen deputies last week.

Testimony ends

A four-day hearing on a suit challenging the outcome of the April 5 Nameoki Township election concluded in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville Thursday and a decision on the case is anticipated by the end of this month.

Attorneys for both sides in the dispute have indicated an appeal is likely no matter what the decision by Chief Circuit Judge Victor Mosele.

Only one witness, Precinct 8 poll watcher William Luchini, was heard Thursday and both sides then rested their cases. There were no closing oral arguments.

Judge Mosele asked H. Carl Runge, attorney for defeated supervisor Louis Whitsell, and other unsuccessful candidates, to submit his written arguments by today and David Adamson, attorney for Supervisor Harold Davis and other current township officials, to submit his final arguments and reply by Wednesday.

Runge then is to submit a written rebuttal by Friday. Judge Mosele said he will attempt to rule on the election challenge suit next week.

Mosele already has ruled on the validity of 400 individual ballots disputed by the attorneys during a recount. Totals have been announced showing Harold Davis defeated Whitsell for supervisor by eight votes, 1,535 to 1,527.

Assessor Carl Macios defeated challenger Loren Madison by two votes, 1,489 to 1,487, according to the now official court tally.

The final court tally also shows Mrs. Helen Hawkins was elected as a trustee over Trustee Jerry Adams, but she still may face a long battle before being seated in the post to which she was elected, Runge commented.

Runge is attorney for Whitsell, Madison, Mrs. Hawkins and unsuccessful trustee candidates Kenneth Gieson and Harlan Pervan.

He said he intends to

Not much steel being exported

(13th of a series)
American steel producers have clearly not participated in the rapidly growing steel export business.

Considering the fact that exports have contributed importantly to the growth and hence the increased efficiency of Japanese and European producers, one is prompted to inquire why U.S. producers have not pursued a similar strategy.

A review of the U.S. situation suggests that the most important opportunities and incentives described previously for the Japanese and Europeans have not been applicable to steel companies in the U.S.

For example, whereas the U.S. has represented a large and open market for foreign steel producers, the reverse has not been true.

The European system of imposing weight-added taxes on steel imports, while rebating them on steel exports, has tended to make U.S. steel exports non-competitive in European markets.

Japan's imports of steel have been negligible during the entire postwar period.

There are different views about why this has occurred, with the Japanese arguing that their low production costs effectively prevent import penetration.

In the case of U.S. producers, this may well be true. Although it may be stating the obvious, there is a considerable difference between a U.S. producer being competitive in the U.S. market, where duty and freight must be absorbed by the foreign producer, and being competitive in a foreign market where duty and freight become an added cost for the U.S. producer.

Thus, the fact that a U.S. producer is not competitive in Japan has no bearing on a U.S. producer's competitiveness in the U.S. market.

During recent years when Taiwan, South Korea, and other areas have probably had sufficiently low costs to penetrate the Japanese market, Japan's steel imports remain negligible — less than 0.2 per cent of Japanese consumption in 1976.

In any event, Japan has certainly not represented an attractive market for U.S. producers.

With a large home market and relative self-sufficiency in raw materials, U.S. producers have not had the same incentive to export as Japanese and, to a

Nurse Anesthetist Week observance opens today

More than 800 members of the Illinois Association of Nurse Anesthetists will be recognized this week in observance of "Nurse Anesthetist Week," which has been proclaimed for Oct. 17 to 23 by Gov. James Thompson.

Anesthetists serving at St. Elizabeth Hospital here include Delores Wilson, Mike Baker, Marty Johnson, Roger Kadell and Robert Little.

The nurse anesthetist is an integral member of the operating team which brings professional skill to the important phase of patient care, according to Judith A. Thompson, CRNA, Centralia, of the Illinois Association of Nurse Anesthetists. They are skilled and highly prepared specialists who administer anesthetics to patients for all types of operations, she said.

In a statement issued in connection with observance of the week, she said:

"The career of nurses in anesthesia is as old as the profession of nursing itself. In 1880, nursing sisters were first trained as anesthetists at St. John's Hospital in Springfield, Ill. The first gained national recognition in this field under the Doctors Mayo, at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. The first school of anesthesia in the United States was established in 1915 at the Lakeside Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio.

"From its beginning in 1931, with a membership of 40 nurses, the national association has grown to 16,720 members and continues to grow as the challenge of this specialty is met by nurses directing their abilities to higher goals in professional life.

"Required, for the tremendous responsibilities which are undertaken by the nurse anesthetist, is an education on a continuing basis, with the formal school program being but the beginning of a lifelong educational process. This process is exemplified by National and State Associations as well as the local educational districts, all providing annual, semi-annual and/or monthly meetings to further professional growth. Additionally, the anesthesia field is open to both men and women.

The A-line skirt terminated with a deep gathered flounce, extending into a chapel train.

A lace headpiece etched with seed pearls secured her shoulder length veil of silk illusion and she carried a colonial cascade of white roses, peach baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Representative Jim McPike, 56th District Democrat, has announced that Alderman Tyrone Echols of Venice has joined his staff as a legislative aide.

McPike appointed aides earlier this year in Nameoki Township (State Park Place) and in Washington Park.

The Alton legislator said, "Tyrone will complement the work of the other aides and will bring better representation to both a geographic area and an ethnic population."

McPike commented, "He is aware of the needs of his community, has the ability to articulate these needs, and does not hesitate to speak out when the needs are not being met."

Born and raised in Venice, Echols has been active in community life. He is a member of the board of the United Way, a member of the General Assembly of the St. Louis Health Systems Agency, and a member of New Hope Masonic Lodge 22.

Driver killed, two GC youths hurt in crash

Douglas Williams, 17, of 7 Sunflower Court, Pontoon Beach, and David Maxfield, 16, of 3 Sunflower Court, were among the persons involved in a crash which overturned in a ditch near Plainview in Macopin Township at 2 p.m. Friday, killing the driver and injuring the five passengers.

The driver, Wayne E. Davis, 19, Godfrey, was pronounced dead at the scene and was taken to a Carlinville funeral home.

Williams and Maxfield were taken to the Carlinville Hospital where they were treated for a possible head injury, abrasions to his right leg and shoulder and pain in his left shoulder. He then was transferred to Pirmin Design Hospital, St. Louis, where he was admitted.

Maxfield was admitted to the Carlinville hospital in satisfactory condition, as was Jeffery Kasinger, 15, Alton, another passenger. Michael Perier, 16, Brighton, was taken to Alton Memorial Hospital in fair condition and Jeffery Berg, 16, Godfrey, was taken to St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis, where he was admitted to the intensive care unit in critical condition.

Illinois State Police troopers said they do not know what caused the accident. The auto was southbound on the Carlinville-Shipman Blacktop near Plainview when it left the roadway and overturned in the ditch.

Testimony

"challenge the integrity" of the ballots in his closing arguments on several points brought up during the four-day hearing.

Major points include six allegedly missing ballots which make you wonder how many others there might be," according to Runge; the alleged storage of ballots from three precincts in an unsafe condition at the clerk's home after the election and up to the canvass; and tally sheets that allegedly had been altered and that are said to show, in some cases, more ballots cast than delivered to the precinct.

He contended Davis' attorney did not dispute testimony that the judge had indicated he was in advance and that some unused ballots were returned to the town hall after the election.

Runge said this would have made the casting of additional ballots easy. He said he is concerned particularly in light of tally sheets appearing in his opinion, to have been altered.

He also pointed to testimony by a Precinct Eight canvasser who said he did not see Town Clerk Douglas Teeter when election supplies were returned to the town hall on election night.

Donald Patrick testified that he called out split votes to the other election judges during the counting of ballots and does not recall seeing any written votes for a Mike Briggs. The discovery process showed that Precinct Eight ballots, Runge asserted.

He contended the canvass also showed 19 votes were counted for Davis which actually were cast for Whitsett, and 25 votes were counted for Maxfield which actually were cast for Madison.

Testimony of a telephone call received during the ballot counting—and a poll watcher leaving before all the votes were counted—leave doubt as to the overall accuracy of the election results, Runge alleged.

He also said he does not agree with Judge Moele's ruling on the validity of some of the contested ballots. The attorney contended the decisions, in some cases, could be grounds for an appeal.

Adamson said his witnesses and his cross-examination of Runge's witnesses left serious doubts on the validity of Runge's contentions.

He said he feels Runge failed to "prove his case" of election fraud or error.

Adamson said he will wait to see Runge's final arguments and will respond each at that time. He said the final count of the ballots is in favor of all of his candidates except Jerry Adams.

If the judge rules in favor of Runge's clients, Adamson is expected to ask for a hearing on the "affirmative defense" motions he filed with the court last week.

The motions make numerous allegations against Whitsett and contend Whitsett will be unable to serve as supervisor, should the allegations be proven.

Whitsett and Runge responded Friday to the Adamson affirmative defense document, saying it was signed only by Adamson and does not represent accusations by Adamson's clients.

"The people who have to make these accusations have not signed the document and I believe Mr. Adamson used his 'boiler license' with the court," Whitsett said. "I am satisfied there is absolutely no proof to these accusations and this is just a political play."

Whitsett denied all of the allegations as "entirely false and completely ungrounded."

The document alleges Whitsett forced his employees to campaign for him and contribute financially to his campaign; that he paid an unauthorized employee to be the general assistance officer; and that he shared the responsibility as a Madison County Board member for overpopulation.

less extent, European producers.

Capacity growth in the U.S. has also been constrained by the necessity for capacity additions to provide reasonable returns on investments containing a high proportion of equity.

Since the prices needed to compete in the export market have generally been lower than domestic prices and since even domestic prices have not produced attractive returns — there would be no incentive for U.S. producers to make a substantial commitment to expand exports have been very limited.

Thus, as a long-term proposition, it is not surprising that exporters have played an important role in the planning of U.S. producers.

One is still led to wonder why U.S. producers, even if they have not pursued exports as a long-term proposition, have not used the same type of non-run pricing strategies as European and Japanese producers to relieve pressures on operating rates brought about by cyclical demand worldwide.

Again, there seem to be several explanations, including the fact that reduced operating rates have a lesser financial impact in the U.S. than in Japan and Europe, where fixed costs are relatively higher.

In the final analysis, however, it seems clear that short-run marginal cost pricing is a less workable strategy for U.S. producers because they have had higher variable costs than the Japanese or the Europeans.

This is especially true to the extent that labor is more likely to be treated as a fixed cost in Japan and Europe than in the U.S.

In theory, labor costs in the U.S. might be considered completely variable.

In practice, however, labor costs are less than completely variable (at least in the short run) owing to the high cost of unemployment benefits, the lag between volume reduction and work-force reductions, and reluctance by employers to lay off any more workers than absolutely necessary.

In general, because they do not pursue export programs on a sustained basis, U.S. producers (attempting to as temporarily increase exports) could be expected to have significantly higher transportation and marketing costs in the short run.

Thus, during times of slack demand worldwide, it is questionable whether U.S. producers could match the delivered prices of Japanese and European producers in third markets and still cover their variable costs.

Fuel saving in college district

Belleville Area College has started an intensive energy saving campaign. It includes the installation of a new energy management system, and conservation measures ranging from reduced lighting to operating a 40-hour week in four days during summer sessions. The college district includes the Quad-Cities.

According to BAC's vice-president for administrative services, James Hines, the four-day work week in the summer resulted in a saving of $10,440, due primarily to reduced costs for air-conditioning.

Because classes are scheduled for only four days a week during summer terms, BAC administrators and other support staff members went to a ten-hour day, Monday through Thursday. The college was completely closed down the other three days.

Hines notes, "The cooling wasn't turned on for anyone on those days. If an administrator had work he had to do at the college, he simply endured the heat."

The four-day work week during summers—and a shutdown of facilities between Christmas and New Year's—are only the first phase of an overall energy conservation program that includes the total campus.

Other current practices include a drastic reduction in outdoor lighting, use of lower-watt bulbs in hall lighting, and lower temperatures in winter and higher ones in summer.

Also, use of natural light when feasible, turning off lights and appliances not in use, continuous surveillance and maintenance of equipment to obtain the greatest efficiency, and many similar measures. A new computerized energy management system will be Phase II of the energy conservation program.

This system provides for a staggered turn-on, turn-off of energy systems to eliminate the kind of energy peaks that are costly to the consumer. Through use of shutdown periods for much of the equipment, total consumption will also be substantially reduced, it is believed.

Hines estimates an additional saving of from $25,000 to $30,000 per year after installation of the energy management system. He concludes, "We realize that our students and our staffs will not always be completely comfortable. They will often have to put on a sweater in the winter, and they may be a little warm in the summer."

"But if our country is going to achieve the energy conservation that is critical at this time, we are all going to have to make some small sacrifices."

Venice's 'Henrys' to team up this season at McKendree

McKendree College Coach Harry Statham has announced the 1977-78 basketball schedule for his basketball Bearcats.

Among the new teams on the 22-game slate for the Lebanon school are North Central College, Illinois State University, Northeastern Illinois and Southeast Missouri State. In addition, the 'Cats will be participating in a three-day tournament at Marymount College in Salina, Kansas.

Statham tabs the coming season to be a rebuilding period, as the 12-year mentor attempts to fill the shoes of six seniors who graduated last year.

Perhaps the biggest loss from the 21-5 club of 1976-77 is Dale Haverman, who was subsequently picked in the fifth round of the National

Jones returning to ISU

Illinois State University's basketball team, armed with eight lettermen from one of its most successful seasons, opened practice Saturday for what shapes up as another eventful campaign at Normal-Bloomington.

The Redbirds have posted back-to-back records of 20-7 and 22-7 under Gene Smithson, who enters his third season at head coach. Four starters return from last year's squad, which reached the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden before bowing in overtime to Houston.

They include guard Ron Jones, a graduate of Madison High School, who set an Illinois State University record last year for assists.

Other regulars include forwards Billy Lewis, a three-year starter from Chicago; Farragut, Del Yarbrough of North Chicago; and guard Derrick Mayes of Elgin.

Lewis ranks seventh among ISU's all-time scorers. Yarbrough supplied rebounding power in Illinois State's drive for the NIT selection, and Mayes was an all-tourney choice at the Connecticut Classic.

Without question, our future looks extremely bright," says Smithson, who is aiming for another post-season bid. "We have size, depth and experience."

Bloomington sophomore Joe Galvin, who measures a half-inch over seven feet tall, was groomed last season as the replacement for all-America pointman Jeff Wilkins.

Added support will come in the form of newcomers Mike Henry, also from Venice, who transferred from Lincoln Trail Junior College, and freshmen Gary Haverman of Belleville East and D. J. Smith of Marissa.

Other new faces include Belleville Area College alumni Rod Zorick, Steve Pace and Larry Bryant.

The Bearcats will open their season Nov. 19 at 3 p.m. in a homecoming game against Northeastern Illinois.

defensive player who blocked 103 shots, led ISU in both scoring and rebounding and is now with the San Antonio Spurs of the National Basketball Association.

Other ISU lettermen are Rick Zorick of Niles (Notre Dame) and Larry Lowe and Robert McCoy, both from Bloom Township, Peoria, a valuable coving player last season, was a standout in the battle against Houston in the NIT.

Smithson has three freshmen, including his son, prep all-America guard Randy Smithson of Normal Community. Randy sat out last season with a broken foot, and retained his first-year status.

Other ISU freshmen are 6-8 center Roy Herold of Helsinki, Finland, and 6-5 forward McKay Smith of Springfield (Southeast). Herold was called one of the top two collegiate prospects in Europe by one observer, and Smith was an Illinois all-star.

Tryouts will be conducted to supplement the 11-player roster.

Smithson is openly optimistic about the coming season, which begins Nov. 26 against St. Louis University at Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis.

"The tradition of winning that we have established in the past two seasons should give us the confidence we need to continue winning," he said.

"We will miss the contributions of Jeff Wilkins, but we hope to make up for his absence with more experienced depth among our young players. We might be more versatile this year."

Cougars defeat Quincy, 2-1

Dandy David Dolphus, sub goalkeeper for the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer team, spoiled Quincy College's homecoming as he turned a sparkling defensive job against the Hawks Saturday afternoon. He played for the injured Bob Robson, SIUE's regular keeper.

Behind Dolphus' stonewall goalkeeping, he and his Cougar teammates grabbed an early two-goal lead and hung on to defeat Quincy, 2-1.

The loss dropped Quincy to 9-2-0 for the season and upped the Cougars to 7-2-1.

Dolphus appeared to be nothing less than sensational in the first half as he posted a total of six saves while the Hawks battled furiously to overcome the SIUE lead. As sharp as that first 45-minute performance was — including a heart-stopping, for the Quincy crowd, save of a direct penalty kick by Quincy's all-American forward, Emilio John, with 10 minutes left before the intermission.

Dolphus was regarded as even more outstanding in the final going.

In the last 45 minutes, Quincy, fighting desperately to keep its three-year winning record over the Cougars intact, outshot SIUE 25 to 13 and forced "Dandy" Dave Dolphus to make ten saves. Many were at point-blank range and with a 30-mile-an-hour wind at the kicker's backs.

That same wind served SIUE in the first half, although it was blowing at less than 15 miles per hour then.

Only about 7,000 of the eventual 10,000-plus were in their seats when the Cougars struck for their first goal. Tim Guelker loosed a pass to winger Chris Cacciatore, who blasted it past the Hawks' start keeper, Eric Delabar.

At 17:00, the Cougars made it 2-0 as midfielder John Zachels penetrated to right in front of the goal and shoved the ball past a harassed Delabar.

For the first time since soccer became a varsity sport at SIUE, the Cougars were outshot: Quincy 42, SIUE 29.

In the bitterly-fought series between the Hawks and Cougars, SIUE now is back in front, 5-4.

Quincy's goal was scored by John with 55 seconds remaining in the game on an indirect penalty in front of the circle.

This Saturday Coach Bob Guelker's Cougars will be at Akron U. in Ohio.

North going to own sectional; South's Schroeder qualifies

The North Steelers sure picked the right time to beat Alton in a gold match. They did it Thursday in the Wood River District.

North scored a 318 over 18 holes to finish second in the district, six strokes behind winning Edwardsville but one stroke ahead of Alton. It marked the first time that a Steeler golf squad has ever beaten Alton.

Rounding out the top five teams (out of 10) were Highland with 350 and Granite City South with 356.

The top three teams in each district advance to sectional play Tuesday. In this case, it will be at the Arlington Gold Course here, hosted by North.

Besides the top three teams from each district, the top three individual scorers from teams that were not among those three will go to the sectional.

AMONG the individuals advancing from Wood River's district is Granite City South's Herman "Dutch" Schroeder. He fired an 85 over the 18 holes in order to qualify.

Edwardsville's Jay Eihausen was the individual medalist Thursday. He shot a 71. Five strokes behind him was North's Brett Smith with a 76.

Other top finishers for North were George Bartz with a 78, Dan Harper with an 81 and Russ Chappell with a score of 87. Only the top four finishers were counted in the teams' scores.

Chris Andrews shot an 84 and Mike Colla a 90 for the rest of the Steelers' scoring.

FOR SOUTH, besides Schroeder's 85, Jol King shot an 86, Ben Brown 91, Kevin Romine a 94, Greg Mulach 95 and Joe Juneau 107.

Besides North, Edwardsville, and Alton, there will be six other teams entered in Tuesday's sectional.

The top three teams from both the West Frankfort and Decatur (MacArthur) Districts will send delegations. Also, the top three individuals from each of those districts will be entered.

Area gymnast competes on national team

Judy Johnson, a newly enrolled SIUE freshman, has just competed for the United States team against the South African women's national gymnastic team weekend in Louisville, Ky.

"Judy is a nationally-ranked gymnast and could — with lots of hard work, continued health and a good deal of luck — make the U.S. Olympic team of the 1980 Games," Larry Moehn, the girl's coach and a member of the SIUE physical education department, said Friday.

Moehn added, "Judy carries a nine-plus rating in all four gymnastic events — balanced beam, the uneven bars, floor exercises and vaulting."

From the West Frankfort District, Belleville Albhoff, West Frankfort and Belleville East will be entered.

West Frankfort won its own district with a 318 score. Albhoff was second with 330; Belleville East shot a 328.

From the Decatur MacArthur District, Paris, Decatur Eisenhower and Decatur MacArthur will come to Arlington for the sectional.

MacArthur won its own district with a 290. Eisenhower shot a 294, and Paris fired a 311. The top ten individual scorers (there was one tie) at Arlington will be: from the Wood River District, Calvin Anthony (East St. Louis), Mike Tuffile (Highland) and Schroeder from South. From the Decatur District, Greg Petersen (Charleston), Dan Floyd (Decatur Lakeview) and Greg Goodline (Clinton) and Joe Stuart (Decatur) Lakeview who finished in a tie. From the West Frankfort District, Mark Hale (Benton), Tom Spinoch (Mascoutah), and Duane Crebbel (Mt. Vernon).

Play will begin at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Arlington Golf Course.

If we don't restore phone service to your home within 12 hours, ask for a credit.

Chances are, your home telephone service will never fail you. But if it ever does, getting it fixed is as easy as calling Illinois Bell's Repair Service.

Just dial the number listed in the front pages of your phone book.

We have over 5,000 repair people working for you, so you can normally expect prompt service. And there's no extra charge as long as the equipment is Bell's and the damage was not caused by abuse or neglect.

Occasionally, though, repair orders do get bunched up. So if you still can't make or receive calls at your home 12 hours after you've notified Repair Service, you can ask for a credit for the time you were without service. Just call your Business Office at the number listed on your phone bill and in the phone directory. Your Service Representative will look into it for you and determine what credit is due, based on your monthly service charge. (For example, on a monthly charge of $12, a one-day refund would be 40¢.)

How to get credit for an out-of-service phone is one of the many money-saving facts and ideas you'll find in our new booklet, "Consumers' Guide: Home Telephone Service."

To get the most out of your phone service, send for a free copy.

RESPECT LIFE MASS. Students of St. Margaret Mary School bring gifts to the church altar during an offertory procession at a Mass last week, celebrated to emphasize respect for human life. Each of the students presented a gift suitable for a baby, such as clothing, diapers and toys, or other items used by mothers and young infants. The gifts were put into a baby playpen which was placed in front of the main altar of the church. Father Edward Groesch, pastor of the church, celebrated the special Mass for the students and congregation. The robed altar boys are, from the left, Joe Goodrich, Jim Jones, Joe Zinn and Ed Cowley. The gifts will be given to needy mothers in this area by Granite City Birthright.

Pre-registration for spring college classes

Pre-registration for spring courses at Belleville Area College will begin Oct. 24 and continue through Dec. 16.

Students may register at the registrar's office on the main campus from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday through Thursday, and from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Friday. The college is located at 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville.

Students may pay their tuition and fees at the time of registration or after they receive their bills by mail (prior to the beginning of classes).

Admissions Director Vince Marjerum notes that students who register early will be more likely to get the classes they want at the hours they prefer. Students who need help in degree planning or selecting classes are to see their counselor or advisor before going to the registration center.

Mid-year graduating high school students and others who will be enrolling for the first time at BAC should definitely arrange to meet with a counselor before enrolling full time, he adds.

Students still in high school who plan to enroll for part-time classes (credit in excess) must have a letter of authorization from their principals or high school counselors.

With such authorization, high school seniors may register for classes at either the main campus or in their home community extension centers.

Regional conference for women

Ann Lousin and Mary Lee Leahy, attorneys and former Illinois state officials, will present the keynote panel on "Legal Status of Women" when the Central Illinois International Women's Year regional conference is held in Springfield Saturday, Oct. 22. The conference will convene at the Springfield YWCA, with registration beginning at 8:30 a.m.

Purpose of the regional session is to share information about IWY with women of Central Illinois; to explain the purpose of the IWY national women's conference in Houston, Nov. 19-21; and to provide an opportunity for women to meet delegates from their area and express their views to them.

Additionally, it provides a forum for discussion of issues of concern to women, with particular emphasis on recommendations adopted at the Illinois IWY Conference in June at Normal.

Coffee at the governor's mansion will precede the opening session of the conference, which will include a slide presentation on women in Illinois history.

Participants will be permitted to attend two workshops during the day's meeting.

Choices for the first session include social addition, information on misuse of drugs and alcohol among women, how to profit from life experiences, how to find one's place in a changing world, and women and work.

Choices open for the second session include aging, which will deal with life cycles for women of all ages; violence against women; women and political activity, including grassroots action, lobbying and political office holding; and women and finance — information on Social Security, wills and personal finance.

Further information and a conference flyer can be obtained by calling the Illinois IWY Office in Normal at (309)-454-1011.

Delegates to the Houston convention from the Central Illinois region will be introduced at the Springfield meeting.

They include: Carol Frederick, East Alton; Anne Courtney, Peoria; Mary Brown, East St. Louis; Betty Christopher and Rosalie Glover, both of Peoria; Sara Lehr and Violet Hamilton, both of Normal; Sheila Hart, Streator; Peg Blaser, Springfield; Bonnie Bowby, Decatur; Ann L. Austin, Oakdale; Jo Higgins, Belleville; Rosemary Thomson, Morton; and Margaret Cowden, Springfield.

Federal employees plan yule meeting

The National Association of Retired Federal Employees, Chapter 1067, met at the Barrel Restaurant, with 31 present, including guests Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Threlkeld and new members Arline Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnhart.

Adrian Copeland, legislative chairman led a discussion on many items of concern to federal employees and retirees, including the action taken by the house ways and means committee, concerning civil service annuities.

President Larry Hengehold appointed the following nominating committee to bring a report in November for election of officers for the next year, Howard Vallow, Bob Graves and Louis Hodapp.

President Hengehold read a letter from the state chapter and members voted on suggested resolutions.

The Christmas meeting was discussed and plans will be finalized at the November meeting, it was noted.

Wilma Wilkerson received the afternoon prize. The next meeting will be held at 12:30 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 14, at the Barrel Restaurant.

Events mark Business Women's Week

Several special activities in celebration of National Business and Professional Women's Week are planned by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club, whose membership is drawn from the Quad-Cities and nearby communities.

The week-long observance started yesterday and continues through Saturday, Oct. 22, according to Mrs. Lili Marzluft, BPW Week chairman, and Mrs. Gladys Newman, co-chairman.

Opening the week's active schedule was the fall conference of District 14, Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women, held Sunday at Michael's Restaurant in Highland.

Mrs. Lois Wetton, Individual Development chairman, was in charge of arranging the attendance by local women.

Club members will attend a meeting of the City Council of Granite City at 8 p.m. Tuesday, with Mrs. Billie Schuler serving as project chairman.

Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City will be the principal speaker at the "Legislation Night" dinner, set Wednesday evening at Charlie's Restaurant.

Special guests at the 6:30 dinner meeting will be State Senator Sam Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) and State Representatives Jim McPike (D-Alton) and Joe Luco (D-Edwardsville).

Mrs. Ollie Derr, legislation and dinner chairman, said entertainment will include a skit performed by Delores Klesh, Louise Lewis and Jim Stack, a guest.

Recognition will be accorded and awards will be presented to those who recently completed a course in "Practical Politics," sponsored by the business women's group, Mrs. Derr advised.

On Thursday, Oct. 20,

members of the local BPW club will host a party for senior residents of the Anchorage and Kirkpatrick homes.

The event will take place at 7 p.m. at the Anchorage Recreation Center, with Mrs. Gladys Newman and Mrs. Marionrose Lambert as co-chairmen.

The week will conclude by attending Mass with Mrs. Lorene Sadrakula, club president, at 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 22, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Madison.

In recognition of National Business Women's Week, Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison, Venice Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold of Venice and Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler signed a proclamation Friday at the City Hall in Granite City.

The proclamation reads in part: "Whereas, working women constitute 26 million of the Nation's working force, and are constantly striving to serve their communities, their states and their nation in civic and cultural programs, and

"Whereas, major goals of Business and Professional Women are to help create better conditions for business women through the study of social, educational, economic and political problems; to help them be of greater service to their community; to further friendship with women throughout the world, and

"Whereas, all of us are proud of their leadership in these many fields of endeavor,

"Now, therefore, we — Paul Schuler, Mayor of Granite City, Mike Sasyk, Mayor of Madison, and William M. Ebersold, Mayor of Venice, do hereby proclaim Oct. 16 to Oct. 22, 1977 as National Business Women's Week," sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., and urge all citizens in Granite City, Madison and Venice, all civic and fraternal groups, all educational associations, all news media, and other community organizations to join in this salute to working women by encouraging and promoting the celebration of the achievements of all Business and Professional Women who contribute daily to our economic, civic and cultural purposes."

You simply come to us for a real estate loan backed by your equity. Equity is the difference between how much your home is worth, and what you owe on it.

It's a valuable asset you can use to back a really big loan. For whatever you have in mind.

Real estate values are up, up, up.

So the house you bought just a few years ago probably would sell for a lot more than you paid.

Which means your equity is bigger. And the bigger your equity, the more you can borrow in a large real estate loan. Right here. Right now. So the equity in your house is like money in your pocket. Call us. We've got your loan.

ICC hearing to resume Nov. 8 on GC grant plea

A hearing before the Illinois Commerce Commission on an application for grant funds to assist Granite City in financing construction of the proposed $4 million overpass between West Granite City and the downtown area will resume in Springfield on Tuesday, Nov. 8.

The hearing opened several weeks ago with the appearance before the commission of some Granite City officials, citizens and police and ambulance drivers who testified to the need of the overpass due to long and frequent delays by trains that block major downtown streets to West Granite City.

Meanwhile, Mayor Paul Schuler, City Engineer Monroe Brewer and Randall Robertson, Granite City attorney, met in Springfield last week with John Kramer, director of the Illinois Department of Transportation, to discuss possible sources of funding for the overpass project.

"We considered several suggestions that came up in the meeting and expect to follow them up in an effort to reach all possible sources of financial help," Schuler said.

Granite City is seeking funds from the commerce commission's Grade Separation Protection Fund which can provide grants in which grade separation contributes to railroad crossing safety.

Schuler said no specific amount will be requested since it is the policy of the commission to determine the amount of its grants based on testimony as to the need of the project. Customarily such grants run about 25 or 30 per cent of the cost, he noted.

Granite City has received a priority rating on $2,775,000 in grant funds from the Federal Aid to Urban Systems, including $1,275,000 for the 1977-78 fiscal year, and $1 million for the 1978-79 fiscal year.

Under the FAUS program, the city still may seek additional funding for the 1978-80 and 1980-81 fiscal years. The FAUS program provides for funding over a five-year period. Distribution of funds began during the 1976-77 fiscal year.

Design planning for the overpass is now under way by the M. W. Architects & Engineers, St. Louis planning and engineering firm that is handling the overpass project for the city.

Off-campus group to meet Tuesday

The Citizens' Advisory Committee for Off-Campus Education in the Granite City School District will resume its regular meetings with a "Dutch treat" dinner at 6:15 p.m. Tuesday at Charlie's Restaurant.

The agenda for the first meeting of the new school year will involve a review of the recognition banquet and a study of the Off-Campus Education guidelines, which were formally accepted by the Granite City Board of Education in late summer.

Committee members unable to attend are being asked to contact Don Shaffner, coordinator, Off-Campus Education, at 877-1512, extension 68 or 48.

AUTO IS STOLEN

The light green 1966 Chevrolet of Alvin Gordon, East St. Louis, was stolen from the 1100 block of Niedringhaus Avenue between Friday evening and 7:30 a.m. Saturday. The auto has chrome wheels, wide tires, a burned area on the hood and a citizens band radio antenna on the trunk. It could be started without a key, Gordon said.

ARREST MOTORCYCLIST

Virgil Hughes, 22, of 2901 Circle Drive, was arrested while driving a motorcycle at 23rd and State streets at 12:40 p.m. Thursday and was charged with possession of a vehicle with the identification number removed, no valid registration, no motorcycle classification on his driver's license, no helmet or eye protection and no city license.

Barbershop auditions scheduled for Oct. 24

A special "open house audition" for prospective barbershop quartet and chorus singers will be held by the Mississippi Valley Chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Monday, Oct. 24, at 8 p.m. in the Collinsville Building and Loan, 321 East Belt Line. The Mississippi Valley chapter is a chorus of 50 members who reside in Collinsville, Granite City, Edwardsville, Belleville, Madison, Roxana and other cities. Its president, Bob Blew, invites "any guy who just loves to sing for fun" to attend. According to Bob Little of Granite City, public relations officer, over 36,000 members make up the society nationally. "There are 750 chapters," he added, "and more than 1,500 registered quartets throughout the United States and Canada." Ability to read music is not a requirement, Little said, "and no prior knowledge of barbershop harmony singing is needed."

He added, "If you like to sing, attend and enjoy barbershop harmony. And find out what voice part suits you best."

This is the 36th year for the Scottish Rite leader to address candidates

The Scottish Rite Bodies, Valley of Southern Illinois, with a Masonic membership of over 9,000, are preparing to host the sovereign grand commander of the Supreme Council, Stanley F. Maxwell, 33rd Degree, at the 27th degree of the Valley of Springfield, located at 1287 N. 57th St., Belleville.

Maxwell is from Lexington, Mass. and assumed the high office for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction in September 1975.

According to the commander-in-chief of the Mississippi Valley Consistory, Edward G. Maag, 33rd Degree, Maxwell is also grand master of Masons in his home state of Massachusetts.

Maxwell will be a part of the largest reunion to be held by the Scottish Rite Bodies at their cathedral. He will address candidates for the 32nd Degree on Saturday, Nov. 5. The candidates' first day of activities will be Saturday, Oct. 29.

Following the final degrees, the class of candidates will be entertained at a dinner, and later the music of Wayne King and his famous orchestra will play for the candidates, members and their ladies.

Other Illinois Scottish Rite Valleys will send degree teams for the reunion.

YOUNG MAN BEATEN

Ritchie Lee Powell, 20, of 2161 Monroe St., was injured during a disturbance at the Barrel Restaurant, 1226 Nineteenth St., at 8:40 p.m. Saturday and he was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital. He declined to be treated for cuts to his forehead and left the hospital.

One witness reported he heard three blows being struck and turned to see two youths carry another one outside. He said Powell had been knocked off a bar stool.

Car-train accident

Phillip Fitzhugh, 20, of Rural Route One, Box 1344, Granite City, was injured when his auto struck the railroad tracks at Madison Avenue south of 14th Street in Madison and also struck a slow-moving Illinois Terminal Railroad engine.

He was charged with disobeying a railroad signal and careless driving. Madison police took him to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for swelling to his nose and abrasions to his upper lip. X-rays were taken and he was released.

2 flee from burglary scene

Two youths were confronted while burglarizing the mobile home of Jeanette Batson, 2300 Nameoki Road, Lot 7, at 9:30 p.m. Saturday and fled out the rear door.

A friend of the victim said she stopped at the mobile home and used a key to enter. Hearing noises, she called Mrs. Batson's name several times, but received no answer.

She then returned to her car, told a man in the car she thought someone was inside who should not be there and the man went to check.

As he entered the home, he saw two youths run out the rear door. He chased them to the 2600 block of East 24th Street, but lost sight of them.

The front door of the home had been pried open and at least $60 in change is known missing. The victim had left a short time earlier for work.

FIND STOLEN CAR

The auto of Robert Mosby, 2026 Ohio Ave., was found abandoned behind a tavern near West 20th Street and Illinois Avenue at 5:30 p.m. Thursday after being stolen Thursday morning from the rear parking lot of Granite City High School South.

The performance will be given at St. Stephen Catholic Church, 901 S. Main St. (Highway 157) in Caseyville. Admission is $2.50 and tickets will be available at the door. Soloists for the "Requiem" are Sarah Traverser, Turner, soprano; Patricia Turner, contralto; Thomas W. Sturgess, tenor; and Michael B. Richardson, bass.

a cancer in its earliest stage

A research center for nuclear magnetic resonance (NMR), a technique that may one day play a major role in the medical diagnosis of cancer and other diseases, is now being developed in the College of Medicine at the University of Illinois. It will be directed by Dr. Daniel Fiat, professor of physiology and biophysics. The NMR technique involves transmitting electromagnetic radiation through either living or non-living matter surrounded by a magnetic field to gain detailed information about the matter's structure and composition.

The research center is expected to be one of the most advanced facilities of its kind, containing more than $700,000 worth of equipment. About 70 per cent of the equipment is being provided through private sources. The College of Medicine has paid for the remaining 30 per cent, or about $200,000.

Present schedules call for the center to become operational by early next year. It will be located in the basement of the Medical Sciences Addition (MSA) in Chicago.

"This facility will be used for 'state of the art' research; in addition, it will provide service for biological applications to the campus at large," said Dr. Fiat. "The super-conducting spectrometers have different features and purposes," he explained.

The super-conducting spectrometers each contain a super-conducting coil which creates a high magnetic field.

By using the NMR technique, scientists will learn about the chemical and structural changes which take place in cells as a result of injury and disease.

For example, the NMR technique may be able to detect cancer in its earliest stages. It could also be developed to do detailed chemical analyses of any part of the body without taking samples of blood, tissue or other matter.

NMR might be used the way x-rays are today, except that x-rays can be destructive in the amount of radiation used while NMR is not destructive since the radiation it uses is extremely weak.

Alternatively, under conditions in which much higher levels of radiation are used at the moment, from x-rays, it is conceivable that the NMR

School grant offer

State School Superintendent Joseph M. Cronin last week announced the availability of $14 million for grants to Illinois schools to improve services to students and to foster imaginative solutions to educational problems.

Supt. Cronin said the State Board of Education is now accepting applications for the funds. Both public and non-public school systems are eligible, and the application deadline is March 1.

The grant money is provided by the federal government under Title IV, Part B and C of Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Cronin said $7,500,000 in Part B funds will be distributed to school districts to help them upgrade their instructional services, media-library services, and guidance, counseling and testing services.

The money enables schools to buy instructional materials and equipment for the classroom; to purchase textbooks, library books and audio-visual materials; and to employ counselors and acquire career materials and tests. Grants are allocated on a formula basis.

Dr. Cronin said he has approved a recommendation of the Title IV State Advisory Council to increase from $2 to $2.85 per student the amount of Part B supplemental funding earmarked for districts with a large percentage of disadvantaged students.

Part C funding is for new projects that offer innovative approaches to school programs and for the adoption or continuation of existing innovative programs judged to be effective. Nearly $7 million is available for grants under Part C.

The director of Title IV ESEA is based at the Illinois Office of Education, 100 N. 1st St., Springfield 62777 (217-782-3810).

METERS ARE DAMAGED

Five parking meters in the 2100 block of Edison Avenue were damaged by bricks and the internal mechanism was removed from another meter, police discovered at 5:20 p.m. Thursday.

A professor at the Institute for Occupation, Linz University, he is considered an expert on international exchange rates. His topic is directed at both the economist and non-economist, and will focus on countries devaluating the currency—Britain, Italy and the United States—and other countries trying to revalue the currency, such as Austria, Switzerland and Germany.

KEEPING YOU POSTED
SUPPLY, DEMAND... and FOOD PRICES
As a shopper, you may have wondered why the price of food might go up or down substantially within a short time period. Under normal circumstances, when a price changes that much that fast, it's because the cost the store pays for the product has changed. (To meet competition, stores sometimes lower prices even though their wholesale cost has not gone down.) In most cases, the price stores must pay for the products they sell is determined by the law of supply and demand. When a product is scarce, many stores are trying to buy at the same time... so the seller can get more for the product. When there's a bumper crop, there's less demand because there's a bigger supply... so the cost the store pays for the product goes down. Remember last winter's freeze in Florida? Many crops were destroyed, which created a shortage that affected produce prices and supplies for several months. Now that supplies are good again, prices are down. As shoppers like you, we at Kroger pledge to buy wisely in your behalf... to make sure the quality is right and to operate our stores efficiently to help us keep prices as low as possible. We want each purchase at Kroger to represent a value for you.
We hear you and we're trying to help!
